

Walking on a Knife's Edge - The Last Days of Our Soul's Journey through Duality: A Roadmap to Ascension

by Brigitta Keck, July 2008

In discussions about the Journey to the Golden Age we are fascinated with the identification of the end date and what will happen then. I was always interested in another important question. How do we actually get there with 2012 only a few years away? In this article I present a rough guide through the final days of our journey to the 'Golden Age', based on my still limited, but ever expanding understanding as it is coming from my heart in July 2008.

I know various ideas exist especially about the end date, all debated with great passion, but still based on the thinking of "If I am right then you must be wrong." I believe it is time to let go of the 'either - or' concept. What if we are all so passionate about what we believe because we ALL are right? Each of us being presented with a small piece of a puzzle to form a larger picture, to help other people to get inspired, to provide a stepping stone for someone else's revelations.

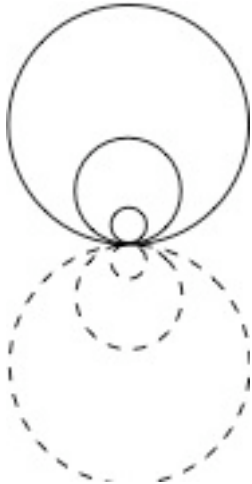

For my personal inspiration I needed two 'stepping stones'. One was 'The Calleman Matrix' by Carl Calleman (www.coasttocoastam.com/gen/page2351.html?theme=light), a chart of prophecy that illustrates the ruling periods of the thirteen deities in the National, Planetary, Galactic and Universal Underworlds. The other was the article 'Harmonic Equation of Ascension' by George Kavassilas (www.georgekavassilas.org).

It all started with being curious, and just having fun.

I have read articles about the Mayan Calendar, but I never studied it in detail. Then I came across 'The Calleman Matrix'. I had a closer look and started to play with the dates. I realised that in just 18 days today we are living the energy patterns of one year in our more recent past. Intrigued I calculated how individual years of the 20 year cycles would correspond to dates during the 360 day cycles. One particular period immediately caught my eye, a number I recognise everywhere - the year 1956. That was the start of an exciting journey.

You might wonder, what is so special about 1956? It is the year of my birth, the start of my current incarnation. A question popped into my head straight away: "What is the significance of re-living the energy patterns of my 'birth' while I am still alive?" And not only once, during the Universal Underworld in 2011 this will happen again. A picture formed in my mind, a circle within a circle within a circle, all connected at the bottom. And that was as far as I could go that day. I was curious, but impatient. I knew there was 'more', but nothing came to mind.

I was pushing too hard, using my intellect, trying to force an answer. So I decided to let it go for the moment.

A few days later I was sitting on the front veranda of our house, just 'staring at the grass' (my way of meditating), and the picture of those three embedded circles appeared, floating in front of my eyes. This time I just quietly asked the question: "What is your message?" Suddenly a copy of the three circles slowly flipped down, creating a perfect mirror image, the whole picture depicting - an 8 within an 8 => 888, the Greek Gematria value of IESOUS => Jesus.

I will now share with you my interpretation.

Let's start with an overview:

The top circles are a symbol for our conscious journey through our life.

The lower circles are a symbol of our shadow, what we do not want to see, and which is then mirrored back to us through the world around us.

The outer circle represents physicality and materialism, a time when we are dominated by male energies, logic, thinking, domination, power, closed hearts, conditional love, fear. It is the time of the Ego, the lower self.

The middle circle represents the time when we are challenged to leave Ego and materialism behind. The feminine energies will now come to the fore with an emphasis on feeling, intuition, to go with the flow, caring, the opening of our hearts, to let go, compassion, learning about unconditional love and leaving fear behind.

The smallest circle is the time when we will finish the process and balance the male and feminine energies, when we will experience harmony within ourselves, be at peace, have integrated the dark, have open hearts and are ready to live unconditional love.

The point in the middle, where all six circles touch, is our consciousness in our physical body. This is the location where both are going through a process of transformation, in Greek 'Metamorphosis'.

The overall process of transformation happens in phases, stages or steps.

The major phases we will experience as transitions, in Greek 'Metabolismos'.

So what does that mean for us in more detail?

One thing is for sure. The 'old days' are gone and our lives will never return to what we consider to be 'normal'. It is a time of completion when we prepare to leave the lower universes. This process has started years ago, but from now on, July 2008, it will speed up, be incredibly intense and condensed.

There are two main processes involved.

'Transformation' can be defined as a qualitative change, conversion or modification. It is the overall process we are going through, a change of our whole being, a refinement, being on the road to our true selves. It is not a matter of creating a better version of this world, of planting a few trees and changing our business practices. These ideas are only stepping stones on our way to a profound, all encompassing change of our minds and our bodies.

'Transition' is the act of passing from one state or place to the next. William Bridges, an expert in transition management, defines a transition as a period of change where you first have to deal with an ending, a time between the old and the new called "the neutral zone", and then with a new beginning. Major transitions will be the times when we 'change circles'. This can be difficult sometimes, because something has to 'die' first, but it will help us to turn around and move forward to a new 'birth'. Doing that voluntarily can feel like a roller coaster ride, but if we miss the point where we were supposed to 'change tracks' we will experience events and situations that will literally 'derail' us, jolt us out of our complacency as a chance to prevent us from 'going around in circles' (the same one that is). It encourages us to look at situations from a new perspective, to question the status-quo, to start searching for new answers within ourselves, to constantly adjust and fine tune our understanding.

I was also curious about the deeper meaning of 'Transformation' and 'Transition' and used the method of Greek Gematria to gain more insights. Here is a list of what I found so far:

Transformation -> METAMORPHOSIS = 1536 - True Geometry // $1536 = 64 \times 24$ with 64 = ALHTHEIA - Truth or Birth & 24 hours of the day // considering that there are two sets of circles $1536 = 2 \times 768$ correlates with 769 = PYTHIOS // $1536 = 2 (32 \times 24)$ or $2 (64 \times 12)$

Transition -> METABOLISMOS = 96 // $9968 / \text{Pi} = 308$ correlates with 318 HELIOS // $968 / \text{PHI}$ the Golden Number, Golden Ratio = 598 correlates with 600 KOSMOS (world, universe) // square root of 968 = 10.33 correlates with 10.40 Microcosm // Metabolismos in Greek means 'change as you move forward', while Metaboli means 'turning back, as in folding in on itself' // medical term Metabolism: "The chemical processes occurring within a living cell or organism that are necessary for the maintenance of life. In metabolism some substances are broken down to yield energy for vital processes while other substances, necessary for life, are synthesized." The perfect balance of 'constructive' and 'destructive' processes to maintain 'Life' // also $968 = 2 \times 484 \rightarrow$ IDOU - Behold!

Looking at the picture of the embedded 8s, it is obvious that the circles in themselves are getting smaller. I was wondering what image would help me to understand the significance of this. What came to mind was a fishing net. Imagine you are standing in a boat and you are casting out a fishing net in a wide circle. To harvest your catch you have to pull it in again. That is exactly what we are doing at the moment, 'harvesting' the results of our experiences, the 'good' and the 'bad' ones, reduced to pure wisdom.

On our path to the 'Golden Age', with an ever increasing level of consciousness, we have the opportunity to consciously integrate aeons of learning from the light and the dark. At the very end there will be no more 'circles', we will have integrated everything, even our shadow. Then I remembered, a friend of mine had a vision of the 'Golden Age' and told me that "there are no shadows"!

Another interesting clue can be found when looking at the dates involved, linked to the 'The Calleman Matrix'.

I was born in 1956 and as a result I had to travel quite a distance through the outer circle. Looking back I feel that my first birthday was on an individual level, granted together with a couple of thousand other people on Earth, but it feels like 'my' birthday. Because of time acceleration the second birthday will be experienced by a much larger group of people. In 2011 though that will happen to everyone incarnated on Earth in less than a year. It feels like we are coming together now, not only as physical beings, but on a consciousness level as well. That also explains the appearance of the Indigo and Crystal children. They are highly evolved souls who can 'jump in' right at the time of completion. We can look forward to a rather intriguing future, because we will experience that our traditional way of 'judging' people will change dramatically. Biological age, our education and titles will become useless as indicators. What will become important is what we know in our heart and soul, e.g. parents and teachers might realise that while they helped a child with its physical development, on a spiritual level they may be the students.

Now it is time to have a look at the timeframe for our journey to the 'Golden Age'. I believe that with knowledge revealed in the article 'Harmonic Equation of Ascension' we can go to the next level of understanding how the process of Ascension works. Synchronistically it also contains a variety of additional meanings for the values '24' and '32' as discussed above.

George Kavassilas states that "On 21 March 2013 this planet, our beloved Lady Gaea (Sophia) will ascend into the Golden Age". I know that this 'new' end date might catch your attention, but I want to make a different point here. It is paramount to understand who is actually involved with this process. We, as humankind, are not alone during this journey. 'Mother Earth' and 'Father Sun' are vital partners and we are all working together as a team! We will move forward together, so all actions and developments are synchronised to the benefit of all parties involved. We only have to get used to the idea that two of our partners happen to have celestial bodies and therefore have 'requirements' on a rather cosmic level.

In November 2006 we have started to change tracks and to move onto the second circle.

In 2010 we will begin to start changing tracks again, moving onto the inner circle in 2011.

With 28 October 2011 humankind will have basically finished its transformation. You might also look at it this way. Imagine you take a block of marble and you start to create a sculpture. Eventually you will come to the point where you know you are 'finished'. You put away your heavy tools, but there is still some more work to be done, such as minor corrections and polishing. That is what I believe we will be doing until the 21 December 2012 - some 'polishing'.

During 2012 it is Mother Earth's time to finish her preparations, e.g. some major changes of her celestial body which we in today's terms might judge to be devastating on a global scale. However by then we will assemble in places of safety, probably already in the 5th dimension.

The next major date is the 21 December 2012, a cosmic event, when all necessary preparations are finalised, waiting for the 21 March 2013.

As per George Kavassilas: "On the 21 March 2013 The Planetary Light Body, the Merkabah Vehicle of Lady Gaea will be activated!!!!" and "After this day nothing will exist on this planet below the 5th Dimension!!!!"

Here is another interesting clue. George Kavassilas states: "To leave linear time and go into no-time one needs to exit this reality at 90°." I noticed on 21/12/2012 there are exactly 90 days left before final 'take-off'.

By now you might wonder, how can this ever happen? The world seems to be getting worse, not better. That's because there was another MAJOR event, the winter/summer solstice in June 2008. We have finally reached the point where the feminine energies have grown sufficiently to reach critical mass. Many of us, who have worked hard in the last four years, felt like they were walking through mud. From now on it will be easier. A softness is coming to the world, easily overlooked, underestimated, but unstoppable. It is like looking at a sea with a storm raging on the surface, but underneath a different current is coming in. Like the incoming tide, it looks deceptively harmless, but nothing can stand in its way.

It is now your turn to ponder the ramifications of this information. Make wise choices and decide which path you want to follow. I know where I want to go and will leave you with a dream I had in February 2008:

I stand tall on top of a thin line leading straight ahead of me. In the far distance I see a shimmer of Golden Light. On my right there is white light, on my left there is no light at all, only darkness. My arms are spread out wide and my right hand holds the light, my left hand holds the dark. I look down and see my feet standing on the thin line on the ground. I look up again and see the Golden Light in the distance and I start walking towards it. I feel a tug from the right, a tug from the left. Someone or something tries to pull me on to 'its' side, but I am strong. I hold my balance and only concentrate on the Golden Light in front of me, never taking my eyes off it. My soul is yearning to get there. Peace. Balance. Patience. A profound feeling of warmth and quiet joy bursts forth from within me, suffusing my whole being. At last. A single tear is slowly running down my cheek. I smile. I am going home.
